

I received this paper from my Aunt Celia Vincent "Ceecee" Bass (1909-2001). She gave it to me Jan. 10, 1993 when I interviewed her about her mother's family. She said it was hand-written by her Aunt Johnnie Christine Seay Lindsay, sister to her mother, Penoma Ophelia "Oma" Seay Vincent. Oma was Ceecee's mother, my grandmother. Oma was the daughter of John N. Seay and Fannie Walker Pace.

EXPLANATION:

Children of John N. Seay & Fannie Pace were (as near as I can tell):
 (son) Beaury Walker Seay, (dau.) Penoma Ophelia Seay,
 (dau.) Lewis Hunter Seay, & (dau.) Johnnie Christine Seay.

The other people listed on this paper are supposed to be siblings of Fannie Pace and their families. Fannie Pace Seay was Aunt Johnnie's mother.

This paper is probably the most accurate record we have of this family. In the 1993 interview with Aunt Celia, she discussed this paper.

(See interview transcript: pp 5 - 12).
